

Hearing the Call Across Traditions: Strengthening Our Values in Action

Why Do I Serve?

Whom Do I Serve?

How Do I Serve?

A MONTHLY DISCUSSION GROUP on the Second Thursdays of each month, October 2011 through May 2012, 7:30 to 9 pm at the Unitarian Church of Evanston 1330 Ridge Ave.

Using the book, "Hearing the Call Across Traditions: Readings on Faith and Service," we will explore the connections between faith, service, and social justice. These short and provocative readings cut to the heart of the many obstacles and joys that accompany lives devoted to faith and service and illuminate the common ground that is humanity.

These sessions, facilitated by Eileen Wiviott and Cathy Deamant, both trained in the Civic Reflection process, will prepare us to serve with intention, imagination, and compassion. All are welcome to participate, and people who serve in any number of ways or are considering service may find the experience especially meaningful.

It is recommended that you purchase the book at the book H at UCE, however we will have copies of the readings available at each session. Contact Eileen Wiviott at 847-864-1330 x111 or ewiviott@hotmail.com if you have questions or to register.

This group is open to anyone interested in interfaith dialogue, members and friends of the Unitarian Church and other houses of worship in and around Evanston.
